CDG Announces Promotions and Organizational Changes

CHAMPAIGN, IL – Communications Data Group, Inc. (CDG) is pleased to announce the recent promotions of Donna Anglin, Michael Runyon, and John Church. Donna Anglin has been promoted to Vice President of Product Support, and Michael Runyon has been promoted to Vice President of Revenue and Regulatory Assurance. John Church has transitioned from MBS Product Support Manager to MBS Project Manager.

As Vice President of Revenue and Regulatory Assurance, Mike will be responsible for all CDG client contracts, equipment, and facility leases, as well as other vendor and software arrangements. In his new role, he will also be responsible for ensuring that CDG is in compliance with all FCC regulations and industry billing standards.

Donna Anglin's new position as Vice President Product Support will expand her current role overseeing product support, training, quality assurance, and product documentation for CDG's BDS-I application to include CDG's MBS and Mediation solutions as well.

In his new position as MBS Project Manager, John Church will manage MBS projects, including coordinating the project schedules and activities of personnel to help ensure successful MBS implementations and upgrades.

In making this announcement, Bob LaBonte, CDG's President and CEO, stated that, "The recent promotions of Mike, Donna, and John, will help CDG increase the efficiency and productivity of our support and product development capabilities, as we continue to align our service offerings to meet the evolving needs of our clients and changes in the industry and marketplace in 2019 and beyond."
